Rourke Educational Media, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 249 x 185 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. America s founders wanted a government that would protect the people but that would also give them rights and liberties. This book outlines the reasons the Constitution was first written in 1787, and how it has changed to fit our world today. The Constitution contains an introduction, or preamble, and seven articles describing the states rights and responsibilities. Learn how...
