For greater convenience in filing the purchasing agents copy should be made of light, flexible cardboard, which will file better than if made out of paper. It is also easier to handle and not so liable to be lost or blown away. Sometimes a fifth copy is made for later reference to the costing or accounting department, and often a sixth copy is sent with the original to the vendor for his acknowledgment. The copy going to the vendor should be printed at the top Purchase Order. The other copies should have printed at the top the names of those who are to receive them, such as Stock Clerks Copy, Receiving Clerks Copy, etc. LEGAL MEANING OF F. O. B. An announcement of interest to all buyers appeared in a recent issue of the Montreal...
