Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Herbert Spencer on the Americans and the Americans on Herbert Spencer Evolution having now become the great scientific doctrine of these times, and exerting a powerful influence on nearly every department of thought, many are asking where they shall find the best account of it. The answer is, in the lucid writings of the great thinker who has first worked out its principles, and reduced them to application in all the main branches of knowledge. Professor Huxley said, in a public lecture before the Royal Institution, The only complete and systematic statement of the doctrine with which I am acquainted is that contained in Mr. Herbert Spencer s System of Philosophy, a work which should be carefully studied by nil who desire to know whither scientific thought is tending. To those not already acquainted with Mr. Spencer s works, it may be suggested that the best book to read first is the Education. Then should follow the Illustrations of Universal Progress, and the Essays: Moral, Political, and AEsthetic. First Principles may then be taken up,...
