

What about Us?

By Eitan Shishkoff

Tim P. Taylor, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What About Us? is the question many sincere Christians are asking when it comes to Israel. They see God's ancient promises coming true in this small miracle nation. Do the Scriptures touch on the relationship of Jesus and Gentiles at the end of the age? Eitan Shishkoff approaches these questions as a Messianic Jew who has lived in Israel for 20 years. Using experiences gathered while connecting with believers on nearly every continent, he focuses on friendship as the answer. Read What About Us? to discover your role in the drama of Israel's restoration. Here is what people are saying about the book: Eitan has lived what he is writing, and has an exceptional vantage point for showing how essential this union is, in preparation for the return of our King. -Don Finto, Pastor Emeritus, Belmont Church, Nashville, Tennessee It is essential that Jesus disciples embrace God's end-time purposes regarding Israel and the Church. Eitan has written a book from the Father's heart that will help us pursue those purposes. I...
