

Finally Free: : An Autobiography of My Spiritual Breakthrough

By William M McClendon

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life can be viewed as a roller coaster, full of ups and downs, thrills and chills. How we handle our circumstances determines our success. Throughout my misfortunes I learned that it is not our mistakes, it is what we do after that mistake which matters the most. Even the Apostle Paul was once considered a bad and sinful person who persecuted people trying to spread the word of God; before he eventually saw the light. I have been in the darkness of neglect, abuse, and abandonment, which caused me to be violent, spiteful, and criminal minded. But through my trails and tribulations, I was able to overcome adversity. Similar to Apostle Paul, a school social worker was my Barnabas. Being confined was my Damascus. And constantly escaping death was my confirmation. Now I m devoted to be the best Christian I can be. I m looking forward to helping, encouraging, and guiding others, especially our youth. Some may say this is a sad story. Others may claim it s violent or dramatic. But best of...
