Another part of our work is to make collections of pictures, pasting them either on picture charts or in books for the purpose. A suitable book for this purpose is issued by The Perry Pictures Co., Maiden, Mass. The binding is of dark green silk cloth, and the leaves are of an exquisite, soft grey, which forms a pleasing background for the black and white of the Perry prints. The book, which has 200 pages, costs $1.25, and the pictures are supplied at 120 for a dollar. Children delight, under the guidance of their teacher, in trimming and arranging the pictures; and where for a like outlay can so much profitable pleasure be obtained for the wee...
