Andrew, thinking he was top dog, entered the military aged 18, but the war in Iraq is far worse than he could ever have imagined, his skills lacking, he finds himself dying beneath wreckage after an explosion. There is voice, a flash of light and then it appeared before him. He returned changed, he returned destined and he returned to a world where other people like him warred for control, people with powers, people reborn through the powers of angels and demons. Andrew Adderman, wielder of the Seraphim flames joins Grey Faction in the hopes to save the world. But as always in this world, things are not that simple, within the shadows of a powerful group, the scientist Siegfried plots to clone these powers into armies of warriors and rekindle the wars of old. Only Grey Faction can stand in his way, or perhaps the woman Reina, who appears suddenly in this knife-edged world of ours wielding remarkable demonic powers. This item ships from La Vergne, TN.
