

Department of Energy Property Management Practices: Hearing Before the Environment, Energy, and Natural Resources Subcommittee of the Committee on Government Operations House of Representatives, One Hundred Third Congress Second Session, September 19, 1994

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Department of Energy Property Management Practices: Hearing Before the Environment, Energy, and Natural Resources Subcommittee of the Committee on Government Operations House of Representatives, One Hundred Third Congress Second Session, September 19, 1994 In 1983, this Subcommittee held hearings on series of management problems involving the Department of Energy's Strategic Petroleum Reserve. One of the more serious problems was property management. DOE's contractors were missing over $700, 000 worth of property. An additional $2.09 million worth of property on hand was not in the contractors inventory data bases and millions of dollars worth of equipment was being stored outside, exposed the elements, and literally rusting and corroding away. Property management was simply not a priority with DOE or its contractors. Here we are more than a decade later. And the property management problems at the Strategic Petroleum Reserve may have improved, but in today's hearing the Subcommittee will once again hear about millions of dollars worth of government-owned property that is missing.

Reviews

Very helpful to all type of individuals. It really is rally interesting throgh looking at time. Its been designed in an extremely basic way which is just soon after i finished reading this pdf through which basically modified me, change the way i believe.

-- Tyshawn Brekke

The publication is easy in read through preferable to fully grasp. It is writter in simple phrases instead of hard to understand. You will not sense monotony at at any moment of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for concerning if you request me).

-- Kevin Bergstrom Sr.