I Wish and Hope is a non-fictional book by Arindam Mohapatra. It contains 33 chapters that are purely based on the thoughts that come from the heart of a young Indian, who wishes and hopes that things will change in his part of the world. The thoughts are simple, moving and funny. The author was born and brought up in a small town of India and post engineering he has moved to various cities to pursue his dreams. So this book describes the journey of a young Indian from an interior part of India to the much developed India. This book describes thoughts like- How does the life of a young man change when he leaves his home town and moves to a city? How does he feel after being cheated by his own countrymen or when his own people treat him as an outsider because he speaks a different language? -How disappointing is it for him, when he notices that people of his country are trying to create the illusion that India is shining; even though...
